

Storyboard together

Stacey and Jason

To help your child understand how to deal with online issues such as inappropriate behaviour and sexting, follow the story and together with your child, fill out the empty boxes with what should happen next.

(This storyboard is not suitable for very young children).

This is a story about Stacey and Jason.

- Stacey and Jason message each other on social media.
- Jason: 'Hi – you are looking great these days'
- 'I see you like the same music as me'
- 'Your little pet looks cute'
- Stacey is excited and thinks he likes her.

- They message every day.
- She sends photos of what she is doing and where she is.
- He makes her feel very special.
- He messages her so often during the day it is like he cannot live without her.

- She sends him a photo of herself in her new dress.
- He keeps asking who she is with and where she is.
- She begins to worry that she cannot answer him quickly enough because she is not on social media all the time, he gets angry if she does not reply fast.
- He messages her so often during the day it is like he cannot live without her.

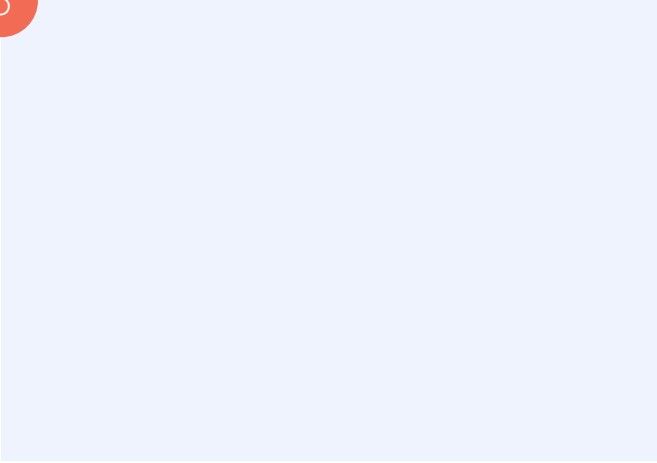

- Jason tells Stacey that if she loves him, she will send him a nude.

What should she do next?
 What do you think might happen?
 What do you think should happen?

Draw and fill in the next boxes with your story.

5

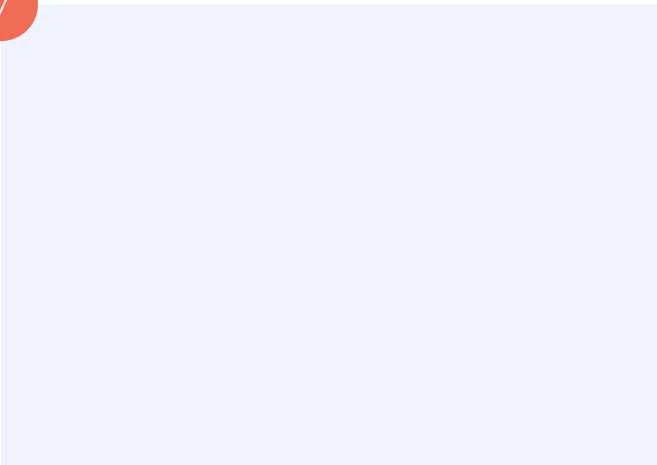

Four horizontal blue lines for writing.

6

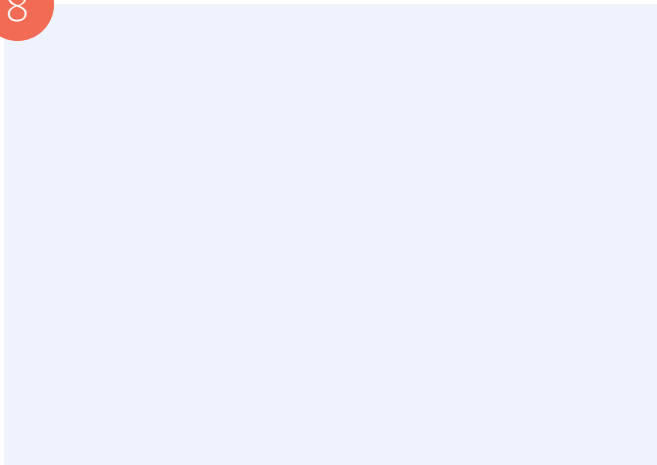

Four horizontal blue lines for writing.

7

Four horizontal blue lines for writing.

8

Four horizontal blue lines for writing.